COLUMBIANA June 26.—Effort after effort to come to an understanding with Lieutenant and tower Warwick, without avail, has been abandoned. The men are now in their tents. Late yesterday afternoon, a close canvass was made of the personal popularity of the candidates. The large, with the view of making a final slate. It resulted in a play on Converse, who was elected. The result was that when elected Chairman. Adjutant General Finley, who was chosen, was thus removed from the field as delegate at large, much to the surprise and displeasure of those who had done it, and he swallowed gracefully. Converse, as he could not at that late date be elected, was elected as delegate at large. The canvass of personal strength resulted in the Big Four slate for delegates, which was: Converse, for the first district; J. McLean, General Morgan, Colonel Ed. Powell, and Colonel Thompson, of Cleveland. The result was a surprise. The fight is now on, sure, but the scales will all be heaved by selecting delegates.

The free traders are wild over the deposition of L. A. Russell, of Cleveland, from the Committee on Resolutions, and they are not alone. Farley, of New Jersey, is a free trader in theory, but believes in protection in practice. The free traders will carry the case into the convention, and will be supported by Farquhar and all the G. O. men. The gag rule will be tolerated. There is a decided feeling, growing stronger every hour, that the Democrats are ready for Hooley to push his claims at Chicago.

Farley, LeFevre, Converse, Faig and others say if Ohio is made the battle ground, they will not go there, but will go for either place on the national ticket the Democrats are whipped here in October, and through that defeat in the Union in November, will make the Democrats of Chicago with practically a solid delegation, its members will not be enthusiastically for him, but will seek the first opportunity to vote for McDonald, of Indiana, for

First District delegates last night chose for delegates to Chicago Dan J. Dalton and Lewis G. Bernard; for alternates, Frederickman and James Poland; for Presidential Electors, John Mulroy and Joseph C. Committesman, Jerry Mulroy. The delegates were instructed to vote as a unit for John R. McLean as delegate at large to the Chicago Convention.

Second District delegates selected for delegates to Chicago John J. Brady and John C. Riley; for alternates, Sol P. Fink and William J. O'Connell; for Presidential Elector, Mayor Stephens; for State Central Committeeman, Thos. Cogan. John R. McLean was unanimously elected as delegate at large to the Chicago Convention.

COLUMBUS, June 30.—(Globe.)—This is the first time since the Civil War that a Democratic party has been defeated with a thermometer at 90 degrees in the hall. A thousand fans are irritating the air, and as many Allen O. Myers has just shown up on the stage with a fine swollen jaw, the effects of the thumb that salacious Clarkey put on him late in the thirteenth district meeting.

Again the slate has been revamped. James Thompson has been elected, although he would not accept the nomination of elector at large, and Cuyabogus has dropped Colonel Thompson and selected Mike Kane in the thirteenth district.

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER.

Paige, in calling the Convention to order, said it was too late to make a speech, and he would reserve that for the next Committee on Credentials report. There Allen O. Myers, as chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported as agreed upon.

Myers said that for delegates at large and at-large electors, the committee recommended that they should vote for four nominees on each ballot. This is to raise the big four slate through on one ballot. There were several nominees not available.

Myers said in his speech: "Have your quarrels here in this Convention, and with the delegates, and let us have a grand, historic, the greatest campaign for the past twenty-five years."

Chairman Finley's speech stated that the Republican Party, the presidential electors, and the House of Representatives, and the Senate, and the people of Ohio vote in October, and that that was true. The Republican party would go to the wall, for Ohio would go Democratic. He said that the Republican party would go to-day, which had 25 Democratic Governors, and one House of Congress against the party in 1870, when it elected fifteen representatives, having then only five Democratic Governors out of 37, and neither House of Congress. He denounced the great Tilden-Hayes fraud, the sage of Gramercy's name eliciting tremendous applause. Hoady's

Convention in Detail.
(UNION PRESS REPORT.)

COLUMBUS, O., June 30.—The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by Chairman David R. Paige, who introduced the Permanent Chairman, E. B. Finley, who was greeted with a storm of applause. The Republican party as one of corruption, who had conducted a long series of robberies and maintained itself in power by corrupt use of money, was predicted the success of the Democratic party in the State in October and the country in November. At the mention of the name of Samuel J. Tilden the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. The virtues and claims of the Democratic party for the suffrages of the people, he proposed, should be the basis of the platform. The Committee on Credentials presented both a majority and minority report on the vigorous fight it was referred back to the committee.

The committee on Resolutions presented his report, which is substantially the same as that of the last convention.

On the question of a substitute—his free trade resolution and the proposition to strike out sections referring to the tariff in resolutions presented by the Committee on Finance—Mr. Tilden rose and, after the reading of his amendments and vigorously and overwhelmingly voted down.

On the question of a substitute—his free trade resolution, that is the sense of this Convention that Samuel J. Tilden should receive the unanimous support of the Ohio State Convention at Chicago, on account of the great fraud of 1877.

Adopted with immense enthusiasm.

A resolution was offered that the Ohio State Convention at Chicago should be instructed to instruct the delegates to the National Convention to be instructed to cast the vote of Ohio at Chicago as a unit.

This caused a vigorous kick from all quarters. It was voted in a call of the roll by counties on the motion to lay on the able, which is now being done almost great confusion.

Unvoted—ays, 385; nays, 255. Now calling for members of the District Committees.

Resolution to adjourn till 2 o'clock was voted down.

Nominations for four delegates-at-large was called for.

—of Hadden County, nominated John R. McLean, of Hamilton County.

John G. Warwick, of Massillon, was nominated by Woods, or Wooster.

—of Delaware, nominated by Mamont, of Delaware.

Seward, of Richland County, moved the suspension of the rules and the nomination of General Durbin Ward by acclamation.

Called by counties called for and seconded receiving vigorous protests for and against the nomination of the Chairmen, pending the nomination trying to call the Convention to order, finally succeeded and the call proper.

Waldert—says, 484½; says, 282½. General Warner was declared elected by acclamation.

John R. Licking, moved a suspension of the rules and the nomination of John R. McLean by acclamation.

General Warner moved as a substitute the suspension of the rules and the nomination of Allen G. Thurman by acclamation.

W. C. Hogan, of Hamilton County, moved as a substitute that the name of John R. McLean be added to the name of that of Thurman. Roll called. Aye, 484½; nay, 282½. The vote on motion to suspend the rules was 484½ ayes, 282½ nays. The vote on the previous question resulted in the nomination of Allen G. Thurman and John R. McLean.

W. C. Hetsely, of Cleveland, nominated Jacob Mueller, of Cleveland. Moved the rules be suspended and nominated by acclamation. Carried. Jacob Mueller declared elected.

General A. V. Rice and General T. E. Powell were nominated for electors at the polls.

The rules were suspended and they were nominated by acclamation.

General Powell was loudly called for and appeared on the platform.

He nominates James W. Newman for Secretary of State. He predicts that Secretary of State William Taft will resign a large majority and predict a Democratic succession to the late Democratic President, Samuel J. Tilden. [Loud applause.] He predicts that his administration as one of great economy.

The rules were suspended and he is nominated by acclamation.

General Newman appeared on the platform and is now addressing the Convention.

John Fisher, of Tascaraas, was nominated for Board of Public Works, and Charles D. Martin, of Lancaster, for Supreme Judge.

The Indiana Democrats.
INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—11 A. M.—The State Democratic Convention has just organized at English's Opera House, with Senator Voorhees as Permanent President. Senator Voorhees was introduced by Mc-

W. R. Myers, present Secretary of State, and the other officials were unanimously re-elected.

W. R. Myers, of Madison, for Secretary of State; James H. Rice, of Floyd, for Treasurer; and John C. Cooper, of Marion, for Treasurer, were renominated by acclamation.

Reporter of the Supreme Court, John W. Kern, of Howard, was nominated; for Judge of the Supreme Court, Fifth Division, John W. Kern, of Howard, was nominated; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, John W. Holcomb, of Marion. The Convention adjourned at 1.30.

RINGING TESTIMONY..

Colonel Cook Stirring Up the Animals with a Long, Sharp Stick.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Colonel Cook, one of the original counsel in the Star route case, was before the Springfield Committee today to answer questions of the state made by Bliss reflecting upon him as intentional falsehoods. As soon as Garrison asked the question, the state assisting counsel of the prosecution and immediately exhibited a desire to exclude upon the cases those he could not control. The witness, however, was not allowed to make statements to be "studied," malignant inventions and perjury. He witness then paid his respects to the committee and was escorted most in person, he said Woodward was the lient and unfortunate man who could have been selected for the work upon which he was detained. The shoe manufacturers thought there would have been different suits in the cases. He believed an indictment would be returned in the first case and he doubted the ability of the counsel to properly prosecute the cases. He believed there was a lack of methodical procedure in the cases to present the cases to the jury intelligently.

Shoemakers' Strike Ended.

Pratt, N. J., June 25.—The shoe manufacturers made terms with the striking employees yesterday. A Committee from the Executive Board of the District Association of Manufacturers met with a Committee of the Manufacturers' Association at Laidlaw, Schober & Mitchell's factory. The manufacturers' committee decided to sign a new agreement with the strikers on the following conditions. The Shoemakers' Committee then carried the bill to all but four

The remaining four signed this morning and the men returned to work.

Millions of Logs.
TAYLOR FALLS, Wis., June 26.—An enormous mass of logs is now in the Dellas of the city of Croix at this place. There are from 100,000 to 150,000 logs of logs jammed in every conceivable shape, forming a level sight. Thousands of logs are being loaded daily from above, and the scene is indeed unusual spectacle. It is thought it will take three weeks to break it up.

Cut Open With a Buzz Saw.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 26.—A twelve-year-old man and a woman, who were engaged to be married, had his side cut open to-day by a buzz saw in Miller's barrel works. He was running over the saw when the machinery started. He cannot recover.

Sharon's Purchase.
The United States senator from New York, William M. Sharon, has purchased a new residence in the city of New York.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Ex-Senator Sharon has made a big trade with John B. Wiley by which he has become owner of the property in Washington belonging to the California syndicate. Mr. Sharon will place all this realty on the market at once.

He said he would resign from the committee before he would enter the House. Hoffman said that if the House was temporarily dropped, the general understanding being now that the committee would consider the Fifth Avenue, where it has been for so many years. I understand, however, that Stokes was not yet given up his point, and when the committee is organized, he will try again to get them to go to the Hoffman. It is hardly probable that he can secure the resignation of the committee. The objection of the Hoffman would lead to Colonel Hooker's resignation. Hooker is one of the few who are not on the committee. The committee has probably better relations with New York business men than any other committee in the House. It probably raises more money upon its individual efforts than any member of the committee would be accepted.

Carl Schurz.
NEW YORK, June 10.—Carl Schurz has been last evening at the residence of Mr. Jacoby, No. 110 West Thirty-fourth street, said: "I have no objection to his views as to the political situation. He said: 'I would rather say nothing on that subject at the present time. I shall make my opinion known when the time comes.' I am a Democrat, and then my views will be fully expressed. My opinion in regard to the nomination of Mr. Burnside is well known, and I have no objection to his being nominated; the general situation I don't care to talk about."

Mr. Do you think is the strongest man in the Democratic candidate, Mr. Schurz?"

"Well, as to that I have no opinion to express, but I think Cleveland would carry the election."

"Will the Independents nominate a candidate of their own?"

"No, I think not; but I am sure they will support Cleveland," said Mr. Shepard.

"I," he added, reflectively, "am glad that the Democrats may nominate. The Democratic party has an opportunity this time."

they miss it this time, then good-by to me. But you must excuse me; I cannot talk politics at present. Come by and say what you want to speak, and you'll hear just as I think."

The Missouri Convention.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—The State Democratic Convention assembled at 9:45 a. m. to-day, and it was just as the arrival of Governor Phelps, who had been absent from the State all winter spring, caused the meeting to be recalled. The speaker, introduced in a short speech, declining the nomination for delegate at large. It is understood, however, Phelps is a candidate for governor.

Woman's Suffrage.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—The woman suffragists met in State Convention to-day for purpose of organizing this State in behalf of a constitutional amendment enfranchising women. The convention opened in its kind ever held in the State.

Will Go Unpledged.—The Democratic State Convention convenes at noon today. Speculation is rife as to the nomination of Governor. Governor-elect John G. Fletcher, General Simon F. Hughes, J. Jacob Fischel, have instructed delegates to vote for the party nominee. The fight to secure enough of the fifty-five unpledged votes to make the caucus 108 promises to be interesting. The delegates are expected to vote to go to Chicago will go unpledged and that a rift-for-revenue-only platform will be adopted.

The Naval Appropriation Bill will go to the next session of Congress, as the Conference Committees of the two branches of Congress are unable to agree on essential items of the bill.

The foundation of H. L. Shepard & Co., West Front street, Cincinnati, and its partners individually, have assigned the benefit of individuals and partnerships, and the sum was $40,000.

FIFTY thousand dollars, with $8,000 accumulated interest, a legacy of the late Asa A. Reed, of Newton, Mass., to the State of Indiana, for the benefit of the public debt, has just been paid into the treasury.

At the State Convention of laboring men, at Columbus, Ohio, M. D. Connolly, Cincinnati, was elected Permanent President; W. H. Kelly, of Columbus, Vice President; W. F. Lewis, of Shawnee, Sec. and Treas.; and J. E. Eckley, of Dayton, Assistant Secretary.

EX-GOVERNOR HENDRICKS, Dayton, Vice President; State Senator Bell and Colonel Dugan, of Indianapolis, were elected delegates at large from Indiana to the Democratic Convention at Chicago, and Hon. C. W. Hendricks, of Indianapolis, and C. W. H. Hanna and Dr. W. H. Hunter, of Columbus, Ohio, were elected delegates at large from Ohio.

EX-GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN, of South Carolina, in his oration before the Philadelphia Convention, said:

Where Wholesale Murder Does Not Even Excite Comment.

Women Lying About With Daggers in Their Hearts, Their Bare Cut Off, etc.—The Greatest Criminals Set at Liberty.

MATAMORAS, Mex., June 25.—An Rafael Morales was returning home from a ball which took place below town last night at the Rosta ranch, he was assaulted from behind by Vicente Zamora, who shot him through the neck, inflicting a deadly wound. The assassin fled across the river and Morales lay out in the rain all night. Antonio Alvarado, a noted bandit, is heading a small party of men who are operating near Lapalpa ranch and are committing many petty robberies. It is thought that these men murdered the old baker about ten days ago.

Advices from the interior state that Benito Topia, owner of La Mesa Ranch, State of Sonora, had, at the head of his rancheros, attacked and captured several bandits. In the State of Michoacan several bands of brigands have united under the noted chief, Joaquin Munoz, and defy the authorities under the guise of revolutionaries. When pressed by the State forces they retire into mountain fastnesses in the State of Guanajuato.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 25.—Many women have, in the last few days, been discovered mysteriously murdered in and outside of this city. A few days ago, near the center of the town, the body of a woman was found with three dagger wounds in her breast. No one knew her. There was no trace of the murderer. The very next night another unfortunate creature was found dead near the Parvulista race course with two wounds in her breast where a dagger had been driven up to its hilt. The next morning still another corpse of a woman was found in the Inezapalco quarter. Three stabs, swift and sure, had sped her to her long account, and no trace was left behind to give any clue to the murderer. Three crimes like these—silently done, leaving no trace but the dead body behind—would elsewhere send a thrill of horror through the country, here they excite but little notice.

A most audacious act was committed here by a bold woman, one of the women who assaulted another woman who was passing her house and cut off one of her ears, probably with the intention of making the handsome carrying that hung from it. A band of three female counterfeiters have been captured in a house on Nino Freddo street.

On the road to Chico Real do Moste, State of Hidalgo, a cowardly bandit named Canabon came on a poor woman and robbed her of money and clothing. He was captured and taken to Nuvo, but the judge at once set him at liberty.

Another case of outrageous abuse of power occurred in this city. A boy found sleeping in one of the parks was taken up by a gardener, who relieved him of $14, and being released, the boy demanded his money, whereupon he was plunged in jail for maligning the officer.

SUCCESSFUL MURDER SCHEME.

The Murderers Surrender Themselves and Are Discharged.

PEARLAND, Tex., June 25.—At an early hour yesterday morning Ed. Allen, a well known saloon-keeper, was murdered in his place of business. Four men named T. J. Evan, G. W. Chapman, John Chapman and Thomas Chapman were in the room at the time of the killing and four bullets entered Allen's body. He died instantly. Immediately after the killing these four men quietly surrendered themselves to the sheriff, but no amount of persuasion would induce them to make a statement regarding the murder. The four prisoners were sober and composed and acted in perfect union. They all had large caliber pistols, but no empty cartridges were to be found. The murder is shrouded in mystery. No cause can be assigned as none of the prisoners seem to harbor any feeling against Allen. A coroner's inquest was held on the body and the jury returned a verdict that Allen came to his death by pistol shot wounds at the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury. The remarkable part of the proceeding was the discharge of the four men who had voluntarily surrendered. They did not claim that Allen committed suicide, but positively refused to make affidavit or admit that they knew aught of the killing. There being no evidence against the prisoners, they were discharged and left town.
